

oo

(as in book)
(in the middle of a word)

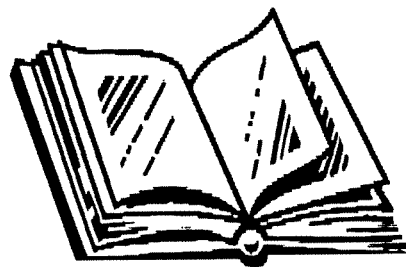

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

foot hood cook look good hook

took shook soot nook wood rook

"oo"
(as in book)

foot took look nook rook cook wood

wool hood soot good hook

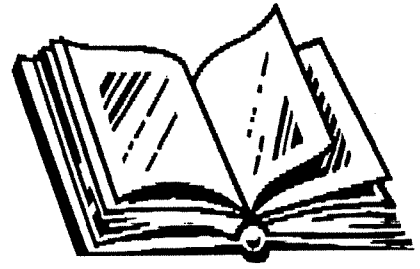

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

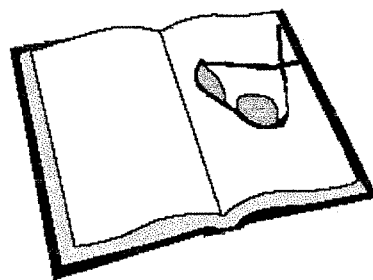

"oo"
(as in book)

shook stood brook crook nook wool good

oo

(as in book)
(in the middle of a word)

foot hood soot cook look nook

wood rook good hook took shook

“his right foot” “look at the sky” “chop the wood”

“a good time in the park” “bait your hook” “took a nap”

“shook the tree” “lift the hood of the car”

Words to Spell:

oo

(as in book)
(in the middle of a word)

book rook cook nook good hook shook brook spook crook stood took

“give the boy the book” “stood in the class” “took a clip”

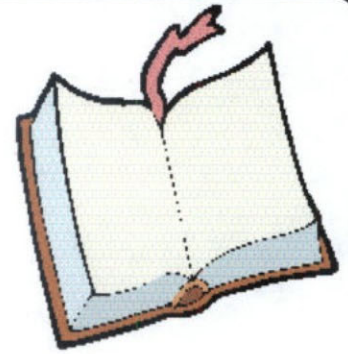

“cook for the men” “spooked the horse” “take his rook”

“shook the branch” “small fish in the brook”

Words to Spell:

oo

(as in book)
(in the middle of a word)

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

foot rook hood look hook wood soot book took good nook shook

“a sore foot” “the hood of the black car” “in the woods”

“took the bait, hook, and fishing line” “a good week”

_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____
_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____